

Sequim Arts Studio Tour 2007

Call to Artists

Mission

Offer local artists an opportunity to display and sell their work in a working studio setting.

Provide the public with a unique opportunity to learn about the creative process from our local artists and to purchase fine art and craft directly from the artists.

What

- Free, self-guided tour of Clallam County artists' studios not regularly open to the public. Artists will open their working studios to the public, answer questions, provide demonstrations, and offer their original creative artwork for sale. Visitors will have the opportunity to meet and talk with the artists, see their studios, view demonstrations, and purchase their latest work.

When

- Tour will be held July 20,21,22 during the 2007 Sequim Lavender Festival.
- Tour hours: 10 AM to 5 PM each day of the tour.

Sponsor

- Sequim Arts in partnership with Sequim Lavender Festival Community Events.

Fees

- Each participating artist will pay a $75.00 participation fee. This fee will be used primarily for advertising and signage.

Advertising

- Both Sequim Arts and the Sequim Lavender Festival will promote the studio tour and the studio tour artists on their web sites. Both will provide links to the artist's own web sites.
- The studio tour, studio tour artists, and tour map will appear in the official Sequim Lavender Festival program for distribution at all lavender festival venues.
- Sequim Arts' booth at the lavender festival street fair will promote the studio tour and the studio tour artists.
- A quality, printed color brochure and map will be available for mailing and distribution during the festival.
- Press releases will be sent to local newspapers for event coverage.

Signage

- Sequim Arts will provide signs to each of the studios. The studios are responsible for putting the signs up and taking them down.

Applications

- Artists must submit the completed application form and participation fee by April 16, 2007.
- Applications may be mailed to Sequim Arts, PO Box 1842, Sequim, WA 98382.
- Artists must allow the Selection Committee an opportunity to visit their studio and observe their body of work.
- Artists will be notified by April 30, 2007 of acceptance. If not accepted, the participation fee will be refunded.
